

NEW CSA FELLOWSHIP AT THE CLARK ART INSTITUTE

Continuing with its efforts to promote advanced study and public awareness in the United States of Spanish art and visual culture, the Center for Spain in America (CSA) is pleased to announce the creation of a fellowship at the Clark Art Institute in Williamstown, Massachusetts.

Sponsored by the CSA, this fellowship is intended to support the study of all aspects of Spanish art from the early medieval period to the beginning of the twentieth century, as well as the worldwide impact of Spanish art and artists.

Application deadline: 15 October 2017
