

Contents

6	Preface and Thanks	66	Astruc, Manet and the Beginnings of Japonisme in France Alice Gudera
8	Manet and Astruc Friendship and Inspiration Dorothee Hansen	80	Manet, Astruc, Bracquemond and the “Jing-Lar” Japonisme in Paris in the Latter Half of the 1860s Jean-Paul Bouillon
24	Concentric Circles Astruc, Manet and la jeunesse Sharon Flescher	90	“A flower like this can become a whole drama” Painted Bouquets by Manet, Astruc and their Contemporaries Dorothee Hansen
36	Manet and Astruc In the Footsteps of Velázquez, El Greco and Goya Gudrun Maurer	104	Zacharie Astruc as Sculptor Édouard Papet
54	“It is pure Goya. Yet Manet was never so much himself!” The Work of the Spanish Painter-Etcher as a Source of Inspiration for the Pioneer of Modernism in France Christine Demele	114	Manet and Astruc, Astruc and Manet Correspondance/Correspondence Introduced and Commented by Samuel Rodary

151

The Exhibition

With commentaries by
Dorothee Hansen and Alice Gudera

290	Biographies of Édouard Manet and Zacharie Astruc Maren Hüppe / Dorothee Hansen	306	Selected Literature
300	Works on Display	314	Index of Names
		319	Photo Credits