

Contents

- 11 Foreword
by Jonathan Ruffer

14 Acknowledgements

Chapter 1

- 17 The Royal Saint
King Ferdinand III: His Life, His Death, His Face
17 Introduction
26 Who was King Ferdinand III of Castile and Leon?
30 Seville and the making of a saint

Chapter 2

- 37 The Representation of King Ferdinand III, 1620s–1640s
37 In Rome: the official template
41 In Seville
42 Francisco de Zurbarán
51 Francisco Pacheco
58 At court in Madrid, the 1640s–1650s: Alonso Cano

Chapter 3

- 67 Murillo and Ferdinand III, King and Saint
67 Murillo and the quest for the iconic image, 1648–1652
74 Murillo's 'true portrait' of the king, 1667–1671
83 Murillo's later images of Saint Ferdinand, 1671 onwards
90 Were there other painted representations of Saint Ferdinand by Murillo?

Chapter 4

- 95 Seville's Festival in Honour of King Ferdinand III to Promote His Canonisation, 1671
95 Murillo's artist contemporaries and their role in the celebrations
103 Fernando de la Torre Farfán's festival book
111 The iconography of Muslims in the festival of 1671 and after 121 What was Murillo's role in the Seville festival of 1671?
126 Royal intervention in the redecoration of Seville Cathedral's Royal Chapel

Chapter 5

- 137 The Cult of the Holy King Ferdinand III in Madrid and Castile in 1671
- 137 In Valladolid
- 139 The importance of the holy King Ferdinand to King Charles II and the Queen Regent
- 146 The portrayal of the holy King Ferdinand III in literature: the case of Pedro Calderón de la Barca's El santo rey don Fernando

Chapter 6

- 153 The Portrayal of Saint Ferdinand, 1670s–1800
- 153 Competing with Saint Rose of Lima in Spanish viceregal America
- 158 In Seville
- 165 Philip V and Queen Elisabeth Farnese in Seville, 1729–1733
- 169 In Madrid, 1680s–1796

Chapter 7

- 183 The History of Murillo's Painting: from Seville to Bishop Auckland
- 183 Seventeenth and eighteenth centuries
- 188 The nineteenth-century Bourbon provenance
- 193 Who was the Infante Sebastián Gabriel and how might he have acquired Murillo's Portrait of the King Saint Ferdinand?
- 197 Copies
- 200 The impact of Murillo's true portrait of the holy King Ferdinand III in Madrid, 1820s–1860s
- 207 Murillo's 'true portrait' of Saint Ferdinand in North America
- 208 Conclusion: the gaze of a warrior?

211 Bibliography

225 Spanish measurement and currency equivalents

227 Frontispieces