

Contents

List of Illustrations	7
List of Contributors	13
Acknowledgements	19
The Festive Entry of Joanna of Castile into Brussels. An Introduction Dagmar EICHBERGER	21
Joanna of Castile's first residence in the Low Countries (1496-1501). The Transformation of a Trastámara Princess Raymond FAGEL	39
Joanna, Infanta of Castile and Habsburg Archduchess. Recreating a lost Wardrobe and Trousseau in 1496 Annemarie JORDAN GSCHWEND	53
The Self-representation of Brussels in Times of Uncertainty Claire BILLEN and Chloé DELIGNE	77
In unam pacis accordantiam. The Role of City Poet Jan Smeken and Other Rhetoricians in Organizing the Brussels Entry Remco SLEIDERINK and Amber SOULEYMANE	107
Role Models for a Queen's Daughter Wim BLOCKMANS	123
Arguing with the Old Testament. Moral and Political Lessons for Princess Joanna of Castile Dagmar EICHBERGER	143
To move the hearts and spirits of men towards joy and recreation. The Entry of Joanna of Castile as Entertainment Laura WEIGERT	165
The Brussels Town Hall. A Worthy Emblem for a Capital City Sascha KÖHL	181

Illustrating Contemporary Events in Watercolour on Paper. A New Genre of Memorial Books Anne-Marie LEGARÉ	207
Manuscript 78 D5. A Codicological Description Dagmar EICHBERGER	227
Manuscript 78 D5. Short Descriptions of the Miniatures Helga KAISER-MINN	237
Manuscript 78 D5. The Latin Text: Transcription and Translation Verena DEMOED	255
Manuscript 78 D5. Reproduction of Text and Images	279
Bibliography	413
Index	439

